

Description

Installed on the high pressure fuel pump, the Fuel Pressure Regulator Valve controls the fuel amount flowing into the injectors in accordance with the ECM signal calculated based on various engine conditions.

