

Description

Located in the blower unit, the climate control air filter eliminates foreign materials and odor. The particle filter performs the roles of an odor filter as well as a conventional dust filter to ensure pleasant interior environment.